- (b) The Council may at any Annual Meeting or adjournment thereof transact in accordance with these Laws any business relating to the affairs of the Union and in particular (without prejudice to the generality of this paragraph) may:-
- (i) Set aside or amend any regulation, adjudication, interpretation, or decision made by the Committee;
 - (ii) Make any such regulation or regulations, as it shall think fit, for the administration, management and control of the Union;
 - (iii) Make any interpretation of the Laws of the Union or the bye-laws of any of the Branches as it shall consider appropriate;
 - (iv) Hear and decide any appeal by a Branch, or Club against expulsion or suspension determined by the Committee pursuant to Law 15(e)(iv) provided that a majority of two to one of those present and voting at the Council shall be necessary to carry a resolution to expel or to confirm a decision to the Committee to expel any Branch or Club.
- (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other Law herein contained, the Council shall not have power to consider, hear, adjudicate on, set aside, amend or to decide any matter referred to it by any Branch, Club or member thereof or by the Exiles relating to ethics, discipline or any drug or doping related offence. The decision of the Committee as to whether any matter relates to ethics, discipline or any drug or doping related offence shall be final and binding on all parties.

The Committee

15. (a) The Committee shall consist of the President, the two Vice Presidents, the immediate Past President, the Honorary Treasurer, the two persons appointed to represent the Union on the I.R.B., the Chairman of the Management Committee, the six persons elected pursuant to Law 14(a)(vii), the nine persons nominated pursuant to Law 14(a)(viii), and the persons (if any) co-opted pursuant to paragraph (e)(x) of this Law.
- (b) Subject to the supreme authority of Council the affairs of the Union shall be administered and managed by and under the control of the Committee in accordance with these Laws. The Committee shall have power to make such regulations and decisions as it thinks fit for the well-being of the Union and the Game that are not inconsistent with these Laws and the Bye-Laws of the I.R.B.
- (c) The Committee shall have the same powers of administration, management and control of the property of the Union for the objects of the Union as if they were absolute owners beneficially entitled thereto.
- (d) All regulations and decisions of the Committee shall be binding upon the Branches, the Clubs, the members thereof and where applicable, the Exiles.
- (e) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, and subject to any direction of the Council, the Committee shall have the following powers and duties:-

- (i)
 - (a) To control and apply the finances of the Union subject to any direction of the Council and to incur any expenses it may consider desirable to further the interests of the Union and of the Game and to make donations out of the income of the Union to the Irish Rugby Football Union Charitable Trust as it may from time to time determine;
 - (b) To authorise the purchase, or taking on lease, licence or otherwise any property (real or personal) and to authorise the sale, exchange, disposal, lease, licence, charge, mortgage, or other disposition or dealing with any such property;
 - (c) To borrow or raise money or moneys worth or any sums of money with or without security for any purpose which it considers necessary to further the objects of the Union and to secure the repayment of same on behalf of the Union and its Trustees by mortgage, charge, guarantee, negotiable instrument or otherwise whether over the property of the Union or otherwise;
- (ii) To appoint and remove a Chief Executive and such other employees upon such terms and such remuneration as it may deem necessary and think fit;
- (iii) At its first meeting following upon the Annual Meeting in each year or at such other times as it thinks fit to appoint, and remove from time to time, such Sub Committees as it deems necessary and to delegate to such Sub Committees such of its powers as it deems appropriate and necessary subject always to the following:-
 - 1. The Committee shall specify such of its powers, consistent with the policy of the Union to be delegated to each Sub Committee.
 - 2. The Committee may determine the reporting relationship and the terms of reference of any Sub Committee to it.
 - 3. Each Sub Committee shall have power to co-opt persons who are not members of the Committee, subject to the approval of the Committee.
 - 4. Each Sub Committee shall decide its own quorum and procedures.
 - 5. The Chairman of each Sub Committee shall be appointed by the Committee and shall have authority to act on behalf of the Standing Committee or Sub Committee in dealing with day to day matters within the competence and powers of such Sub Committee.
 - 6. The Committee shall designate from time to time which of its Sub Committees shall be known as Standing Committees and unless and until the Committee decides otherwise the standing committees shall be known as:-(a) the Representative Games Committee,(b) the Domestic Games Committee,(c) the Finance Committee, and (d) the Commercial and Marketing Committee.
 - 7. The Chief Executive may on his own initiative convene a meeting of any Sub Committee. The Chairman of each Sub Committee shall also, subject to notifying the Chief Executive, be entitled to convene a meeting of the Sub Committee of which he is Chairman.
- (iv) To investigate and where appropriate to hear any allegation of an infringement, by a Branch, a Club or member thereof or any player of the Laws of the Union, the Regulations relating to the Game, the Laws of the Game, or any alleged conduct by any of the foregoing, alleged to be detrimental to the best interests of the Union or of the Game, and depending on the outcome of the hearing, to expel or suspend from the Union, the Branch or Club, as the case may be, or otherwise to punish by such sanction or otherwise as it deems appropriate, the Branch, Club or member thereof or any player or to otherwise decide in such manner as it may deem fit. Where a Branch or club is expelled or suspended such Branch or Club shall have the right to appeal to the Council within thirty days of the notification of the decision of such expulsion or suspension to it;

- (v) To investigate and where appropriate to hear any allegation of an infringement of the Laws of the Union, the Regulations relating to the Game, the Laws of the Game or any alleged conduct alleged to be detrimental to the best interests of the Union or of the Game by any player or administrator of the Exiles and to deal with same in such manner as it deems proper and appropriate;
- (vi) To make regulations and to repeal, amend or change such regulations for dealing with players sent off the field-of-play by a referee or cited under the Regulations relating to the Game and such regulations shall be binding on each Branch, Club, member thereof, and so far as possible the Exiles;
- (vii) To direct, order and empower each Branch to set up a disciplinary committee and a committee of appeal;
- (viii) To hear any appeal by a player or other person or club or Branch affected by a decision of the Committee or any of its Sub Committees and to make such ruling or rulings as may seem fit;
- (ix) To adjudicate on any dispute save where in its absolute discretion in its opinion the matter is such that the decision of a Branch ought to be final;
- (x) To co-opt not more than two persons to be members of the Committee, and in its absolute discretion, by co-option to fill any vacancy on the Committee howsoever arising; such co-option shall take place only if three-quarters of the members of the Committee support the proposed co-option and provided that 14 days notice of the proposal to co-opt has been given to the members of the Committee;
- (xi) To nominate for acceptance by the Council in accordance with Law 14(a)(v) two representatives of the Union on the I.R.B.; to appoint a substitute to act where necessary in place of one or other of the said representatives and generally to appoint persons to represent the Union at any conference or meeting including substitutes for such appointees;
- (xii) To interpret the Bye-Laws, the Laws of the Game, the Regulations relating to the Game, the Laws of the Union and the bye-laws of the Branches and, where appropriate, to submit to the I.R.B. proposals for alterations to the Laws of the Game and the Regulations relating to the Game;
- (xiii) From time to time to make or assist in the making of regulations governing the participation by Branches or Clubs or members thereof in matches against teams from other Unions in membership of the IRB;
- (xiv) To present an international cap to any player who has represented Ireland in a senior international match against any Union in membership with the I.R.B;
- (xv) To control and distribute admission tickets to international and representative matches under the auspices of the Union;
- (xvi) To appoint one or more of its members or any other person or persons, whether a body corporate or otherwise, as it may decide to act in legal proceedings in the name of and on behalf of the Union on such terms if any, as it may decide;
- (xvii) To appoint the team manager and coach or coaches for all the International teams and squads and in whatever manner and on whatever terms and conditions are most advantageous to the administration and promotion of the Game in Ireland;

- (xviii) To determine the procedure for, and nominate, persons charged with and deemed responsible for the selection of all International teams and squads;
 - (xix) To decide on the criteria for determining the qualifications which shall govern the eligibility of players for selection on a national or provincial (Ulster, Munster, Leinster and Connacht) squad or team. Any issues arising on the matter of eligibility shall be decided and determined by the Committee in its absolute discretion;
 - (xx) The game shall not be played in Ireland between 1st May and 1st September unless with the prior consent of the Committee;
- (f) The quorum for a meeting of the Committee shall be twelve.

Management Committee

16. (a) The Management Committee shall be a Sub Committee of the Committee consisting of a Chairman appointed under Law 14(a) (vi), the President of the Union, the Chairmen of each of the Standing Committees, the Honorary Treasurer of the Union who shall be Chairman of the Finance Committee, one or both (at the discretion of the Committee) I.R.B. representative(s) nominated by the Committee, and the Chief Executive Officer of the Union.
- (b) The function of the Management Committee shall be to oversee the operation and implementation of the policy of the Union and to deal with matters arising from time to time within the guidelines, directions and parameters set for it by the Committee.
- (c) The Chairman of the Management Committee shall be appointed by the Committee and nominated to the Council for a three year term, subject to annual review and approval by the Committee, and the entitlement of the Committee to remove the chairman from office at any time. No person may be Chairman of the Management Committee for more than six consecutive years.
- (d) No person may be President of the Union and Chairman of the Management Committee at the same time.
- (e) The Management Committee may co-opt, with the approval of the Committee, two additional persons to be members of the Management Committee.

Branch Disciplinary Committee and Committee of Appeal

17. Each Branch, or any disciplinary committee or other committee set up by a Branch, shall have power to hear any matters that may be referred to, or reported to, the said Branch, and to make such decision or decisions as it thinks fit. Each Branch, Club and any member thereof, whether it be the player or person affected by any such decision, shall be bound thereby.
18. Any player or other person affected by a decision of a Branch or its disciplinary or other committees may appeal that decision to the committee of appeal of the Branch, within seven days of the date of the decision of the said Branch or its disciplinary or other committee. The decision of the committee of appeal thereon shall be final.

Honorary Vice Presidents

19. The Committee may recommend to the Council the appointment of any person who, in its opinion has rendered outstanding service to the Union to be an Honorary Vice President of the Union for life, with such privileges as the Committee may accord him. An Honorary Vice President shall not have the right to attend meetings of the Committee but shall have the right to attend the Annual Meeting of the Council and any Special Meeting thereof without the right to vote thereat. The number of Honorary Vice Presidents to be recommended to the Council for appointment shall be at the discretion of the Committee.

Property and Trustees

20. (a) All property, real and personal, of whatsoever nature and kind, of the Union shall be vested in the Trustees, who shall, in relation to property vested in them, obey the lawful instructions of the Committee, and shall not in relation to that property act otherwise than with the sanction of a resolution of the Committee, which shall be voted on by not less than twelve members of the Committee and such resolution shall only be deemed to have been passed provided a majority of at least three fourths of those voting have cast a vote in favour thereof.
- (b) There shall be not less than four Trustees, to be appointed by the Council, and who may be removed by the Council. The Trustees shall remain in office until death, resignation or removal. The surviving or continuing Trustees, being not less than two, shall have power to act notwithstanding the vacancy in the number of Trustees.
- (c) The Committee may authorise any two or more of the Trustees to give a valid receipt on behalf of the Union for any property.
- (d) No Trustee or member of the Committee shall be liable for any loss or diminution in value of the property of the Union unless that person dishonestly participated in a wrongful act which was a contributory cause of such loss or diminution.

Amendments and Alterations to the Laws of the Union

21. (a) No amendment or alteration to the Laws of the Union shall be considered by the Council unless it shall have been proposed by either (i) the Committee, or (ii) a Branch, or (iii) any twelve Clubs, and unless notice thereof shall except in the case of amendment or alteration proposed by the Committee, have been sent in writing to the Chief Executive at least 21 days before the meeting of the Council at which such amendment or alteration is intended to be proposed. Notice of every such amendment or alteration shall be sent by the Chief Executive to the several persons entitled to receive notice of the Annual Meeting under Law 13, at least 14 days before the said meeting of the Council. No amendment or alteration shall be considered by the Council unless notice shall have been given or unless two-thirds of the members of the Council present and voting shall resolve to consider such proposed amendment or alteration, notwithstanding the omission to give such notice.
- (b) No Law of the Union shall be altered, rescinded or added to without the consent of at least two-thirds of the members of the Council present and voting at a meeting of the Council.
- (c) The Laws of the Union may be amended under the foregoing procedure to enable the Union to be converted from its present form as an unincorporated association into an industrial and provident society under the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1893-2001. Any such amendment shall authorise the Chief Executive and any seven members of the Committee to be designated by the Committee to apply on behalf of the Union to the Registrar of Friendly Societies for the registration of the Union as such a society pursuant to the said Acts. The amendment shall approve the Rules with which the Union proposes to be registered, and shall authorise the Committee to do all things necessary to bring about its registration, including the making of any amendment of the proposed Rules to accommodate any requisition or objection thereto raised by the Registrar.
- (d) The Laws of the Union may be amended under the foregoing procedure to enable the Union to be converted from its present form as any unincorporated association into a company registered under the Companies Acts 1963-2002. Any such amendment shall authorise any seven members of the Committee to be designated by the Committee to subscribe to the memorandum of association of such a company. The amendment shall approve the memorandum of association and the articles of association of the proposed company, and shall authorise the Committee to do all things necessary to bring about its registration, including the making of any amendment of the proposed memorandum and articles of association to accommodate any requisition or objection thereto raised by the Registrar of Companies, and including the making of an application under Section 24 of the Companies Act 1963 for a licence to omit the words “limited” from the name of the company. The amendment shall state the names of the first directors of the company so formed. The amendment shall authorise the transfer of all property of the Union to the said company free of the trusts and agreements presently affecting the same, imposed by the Laws of the Union or arising out of its present unincorporated association.

Fiscal Provisions

22. (a) All the assets, funds and income of the Union including profits and surpluses howsoever arising in each financial period and from time to time shall be applied to the administration, promotion, development, general advancement and benefit of the Game.
- (b) In the event of the dissolution of the Union for any cause or purpose, all funds and assets remaining after due settlement of all liabilities and claims shall be apportioned and distributed amongst the Branches and Clubs in such proportions as the Committee may determine but subject to the express condition that such funds and assets may only be applied in the manner specified in paragraph (a) above.

Indemnity

23. (a) In this Law the expression “official of the Union” shall include a member of the Council, a member of the Committee, a Trustee, the Chief Executive and any other person holding office in the Union whom the Council shall decide is an official of the Union.
- (b) Every official of the Union for the time being and his executors and administrators shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Union from and against all actions, claims, demands, costs, losses, damages and expenses which he shall or may incur or sustain by reason or on account of any act undertaken or omission by him on behalf of the Union in his capacity as such official or by reason or on account of any liability incurred by him in his capacity as such official, provided always in the case of liability incurred in his capacity as such official that such liability was not incurred through his own fraud.

Interpretation

- 24 (a) In the event of a doubt arising at any time on any matter not provided for herein, or as to the meaning or construction of these Laws, the Committee shall determine same.
- (b) These Laws and any regulations made thereunder shall in all respects be governed by and construed in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Ireland and any dispute arising thereunder shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of the Republic of Ireland.
